RELIEVING PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Thank you

Thank you to Rebecca Trotter who has worked tirelessly painting the school mural in time for the Presentation Night. Rebecca has done a wonderful job as you will see tonight.

Presentation Night - tonight

Presentation Night commences at 7.00 pm tonight. All students should be at school by 6.45 pm and in their full summer uniform, black shoes. Please bring a school jumper in case of cool weather. Could parents please bring a plate of food.

Giving Tree at Presentation Night

We need non-perishable goods and toys for the Giving Tree at Presentation Night. These gifts are given to the Women's Refuge for Christmas.

Nursing Home Visit, Lunch and Movies

Next Monday, 17th December we will be visiting the Mountview Nursing Home to entertain the elderly folk and to present them with a small gift. After the nursing home visit, we will be going to the movies at 11.00 am to see "Paranorman", which will be followed by lunch at McDonalds. The students will need to bring money to buy their lunch and all other costs will be paid by the school. Please find a permission note included in the newsletter.

Nursing Home Gifts

We still need more gifts such as toiletries, hankies and treats for the residents of the Nursing Home when we visit at the end of the year.

Duri Public School - Tolerance, Self Discipline, Independence

Carols Night at the Duri Anglican Church

We will be singing at the Duri Carols Night this Friday, 14th December commencing at 7.00 pm. Come early and enjoy a sausage sizzle beforehand. It would be great to have as many students present as possible. Students are not required to wear school uniform.

Overdue Library Books

The students who have overdue library books have a reminder notice included in their newsletter today. Please help us by making sure that all library books are returned to school by the end of term. Thank you..
